... a timely reminder...

Did you know that anyone can perform beauty treatments regardless of their qualifications, training or certification?

With untrained and inexperienced staff the health risks to YOU, from "simple beauty treatments" are increased.

At Absolute Beauty YOU are guaranteed QUALIFIED and EXPERIENCED therapists or Nail Technicians. What's more, at Absolute Beauty we will always tell you if a staff member is in training BEFORE your treatment!

The Hidden Dangers Of Beauty

Poor practices and hygiene in our industry can and DOES lead to minor and major health complications and infections.

Who would have guessed that a "simple wax" could result in follicle infections or "getting your nails done" could result in tinea, fungus or nail bed loss.

Other than for piercing there are no regulatory guidelines placed on our industry for hygiene.

and for those that are tech savvy...

Don't forget that you can book all your appointments online, purchase your skin care, download newsletters and fact sheets, have a look at our monthly specials and lots more on our website. Our website is However...

At Absolute Beauty YOUR health is protected. It is all too often the things that you DON'T notice that are either protecting your health or NOT.

We see it as an important part of our job to educate you and protect your health.

In Our

Salon

Everything that can be disposable is! Take a look at our waxing rooms - they are spotless. With head protector sheets, disposable bed sheets, spatulas, sterilised tweezers, pump applicators, pedal bins, gloves and the list goes on. All to prevent the spread of infection and protect your health.

And when it comes to nail treatments if a client presents with a nail disorder - WE DO NOT PROCEED. We would never dream of risking infection from one client to another.

Our spray tanning cubicle is stripped completely before each client which means there is no risk to you of a contagious disease like tinea.

So next time you book somewhere for your "wax, spray tan or nails" consider what you may or may not be getting yourself into. It pays to protect your health.

Protect YOUR health by making the right choice for your "beauty" treatments!

The (worst kept) secret is out that "Linz Girl" is giving us a hand in the nail bar. It is a real pleasure to have her back.

With Fathers Day coming up we thought we would encourage you all to "drag your men in". Get those mono brows under control and teach your man about grooming and skin care. We guarantee that once he experiences a few treatments himself, he will no longer worry about what you spend looking after yourself, as he will know the true benefits of a bit of pampering.

Grab a "Man Care" pack this month to gradually intro him into looking after his skin., Containing Ultra Exfoliating Gel (which not only cleanses and exfoliates his skin but also helps prevent ingrown hairs from shaving) and an Ultra SPF Moisturiser and we will give him a Man Brow Tidy FREE.
